

MIDDLEMAN'S KNOT

This is a useful non-slipping knot. It can be used for hauling heavy weights in the manner of a harness in fact anywhere that a quickly tied, non-jamming, non-slipping knot is needed.

Make an overhand knot and pass the end A through in the direction of the arrow then make another overhand knot around end B of the rope. When the loop is strained the knots run together and remain fast.

